

The Future of Freight Roundtable
Goods Movement in the Bay Area
Monday, December 11, 2017

AGENDA

- 12:30-1:00 p.m. Registration
- 1:00-1:10 p.m. Welcome and Opening Remarks
Rebecca Kaplan, City Councilmember At-Large, City of Oakland; Alameda County Transportation Commission (Alameda CTC) Chair
- 1:10-1:15 p.m. Roundtable Overview
Surlene G. Grant, Principal, Envirocom; Roundtable Moderator
- 1:15-1:55 p.m. Moving Goods Movement Forward in the Bay Area
Supervisor Scott Haggerty, Alameda County, District 1 and Alameda CTC and Metropolitan Transportation Commission Commissioner
Overview of Goods Movement Planning Achievements

Steve Heminger, Executive Director, Metropolitan Transportation Commission
Regional Goods Movement Investment Strategy: New Revenue Opportunities, and the 10-year Investment Horizon
- 2:00-2:45 p.m. Panel Two: Investing in the Region
John Driscoll, Director of Maritime, Port of Oakland
Overall Growth and Development at the Port of Oakland

Jason Dreisbach, President, Dreisbach Enterprises
Cool Port Refrigerated Distribution Center at the Port of Oakland

Jack Broadbent, Chief Executive Officer, Bay Area Air Quality Management District
Coordinated Emission and Community Impact Reduction Program
- Refreshment Break
- 3:00-3:45 p.m. Panel Three: Planning for the Megaregion
Michael Cunningham, Senior Vice President, Public Policy, Bay Area Council and Michael Ammann, President & CEO, San Joaquin Partnership
Megaregion Initiatives

Chad Edison, Deputy Secretary, California State Transportation Agency
California State Rail Plan

Tess Lengyel, Deputy Executive Director of Planning and Policy, Alameda CTC
Passenger and Freight Rail System Strategy
- 3:45-4:00 p.m. Closing Remarks and Next Steps