

Workshop on Implementing Complete Streets Policies

Agenda

Wednesday, July 24, 2013, 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

1333 Broadway, Suites 220 & 300, Oakland, CA 94612 • PH: (510) 208-7400 • www.AlamedaCTC.org

8:30 – 9:00 a.m.

1. Registration and Refreshments

9:00 – 9:10 a.m.

Beth Walukas,
Rochelle Wheeler,
Alameda CTC

2. Welcome and Overview

Overview of the workshop, and review of complete streets successes and actions over the last year.

9:10 – 9:20 a.m.

Darby Watson, Arup

3. The Importance of Complete Streets

Refresher on the importance and benefits of complete streets.

9:20 – 10:15 a.m.

Nicole Schneider,
Matt Bomberg,
Alameda CTC

4. The Implementation Process: Best Practices and Models

Presentation and discussion on recommended complete streets implementation steps, highlighting best practices and models from around the county and the nation.

10:15 – 10:30 a.m.

5. Break

10:30 – 12:15 p.m.

6. Applying Best Practices in Your Jurisdiction: Building Complete Streets Implementation Teams and Rethinking Standard Procedures

10:30 – 11:15 a.m.

Darby Watson, Arup
Eric Anderson, Berkeley
Obaid Kahn, Dublin
Ned Thomas, Hayward
Jamie Parks, Oakland

6.1. Panel Discussion

Hear specific examples and challenges from several cities in Alameda County and Seattle that are moving forward with implementing complete streets.

11:15 – 11:45 a.m.

Matt Bomberg,
Alameda CTC

6.2. Break-out Activity

Brainstorm how your jurisdiction can start integrating its complete streets policy into day-to-day activities, including via implementation teams and evaluation of procedures.

11:45 – 12:15 p.m.

Nicole Schneider,
Alameda CTC
Darby Watson, Arup

6.3. Presentation and Discussion on Checklists

Presentation on the concept of complete streets checklists, when they work best, the many types available; and discussion of how Alameda CTC can support their local development.

12:15 – 12:30 p.m.

Matt Bomberg,
Alameda CTC

7. Next Steps

Present and gather feedback on additional complete streets resources that Alameda CTC plans to develop.

12:30 p.m.

8. Adjournment